

We Learned the Classy Stance Against the Occupying Jewish Entity from our Ancestors Salahaddin and Abdulhamid

News:

President Erdoğan answered journalists' questions on the plane on his return from visits to Saudi Arabia and Egypt. Referring to Gaza, Erdoğan said: "Haven't we been saying for years, 'We do not look at the language, religion, belief, or skin color of the oppressed'? This is our classy stance."

Comment:

Responding to journalists' questions on the plane on his return to Türkiye, President Erdoğan made general evaluations regarding his visits and stated that he held consultations with Egypt and Saudi Arabia on current developments, particularly concerning Palestine and Syria. Likewise, Erdoğan pointed out that there are still serious restrictions and problems regarding the entry of humanitarian aid trucks into Gaza, saying: "However, despite all of "Israel's" provocations and violations, the first phase of the Gaza peace plan has been completed. Once again, it has become clear who is pro-peace and who is pro-war. As Türkiye, Saudi Arabia, and Egypt, we aim to be involved in all processes and thus protect the rights of our Palestinian brothers."

As is known, Türkiye, a country that moves within the American political orbit, and Egypt, an agent regime for America, guarantee the security of the Jewish entity, and serve as convenient instruments for America's regional policy—were these so-called guarantor countries ("to protect the Jewish entity) that last month lined up in humiliation before Trump in Egypt's Sharm El-Sheikh, like beads of a tasbeeh, and announced that they were guarantors for the implementation of Trump's plan to sell Gaza. However, despite the occupying Jewish entity violating the ceasefire hundreds of times, these three countries and the rulers of other Islamic lands have taken no concrete steps to date and, as always, have ignored the atrocities by merely issuing condemnation statements. Thus, the first phase of the so-called ceasefire plan passed in this manner, and Erdoğan was heavily criticized for not cutting trade during the genocide process.

Now President Erdoğan comes out and says that he has displayed a classy stance against the occupying Jewish entity. These leaders—who are desperately trying to implement Trump's betrayal plan for Gaza—claim that they are displaying a classy stance. Their stance is nothing but humiliation and betrayal. Likewise, weren't these the same leaders who rushed, through a fait accompli discourse, to join the Gaza Peace Committee led by the despicable and immoral American President Trump, whose name is associated with the Epstein files? Weren't these the same people who shook the hand of this vile pharaoh, posed for photos with him, begged to meet him even for five minutes, and regarded this as prestige? Now President Erdoğan shamelessly and without embarrassment claims that he has displayed a classy stance. In reality, for those with eyes to see, these men—who are under America's command—are displaying the exact opposite stance. These rulers are harsh toward Muslims but gentle toward disbelievers.

Once again, President Erdoğan said: “Türkiye will play an effective role in ensuring that the Gaza peace plan is implemented as it should be and in re-establishing peace and stability in Gaza. We want our Palestinian brothers to reach a dignified future and a lasting peace in Gaza. We favor establishing peace not on paper, but on the ground.”

Which peace, which dignity, which future is President Erdoğan talking about? Was it not America that brought destruction, chaos, and instability to the blessed lands of Palestine and many other countries? Do you believe you will bring stability, peace, and tranquility by joining Trump's peace committee—the same Trump who sends destructive and deadly weapons, whose names he does not even know, to the occupying entity that has reduced Gaza to rubble and trampled honor and dignity underfoot? Or by taking steps to ensure the Jewish entity's security? Or by acting together with America, which massacred millions of Muslims in Afghanistan, Iraq, and Syria? Or together with Sisi, whom you until recently called a dictator and pharaoh, the blood-stained murderer who killed thousands of Muslims in Tahrir Square in Egypt? Or together with Saudi Arabia, which is a slave of America? Or with the treacherous Arab regimes that provide a protective shield for the Jewish entity in the region? Do you really believe you will bring peace this way? Is it not America—the source of all these troubles—and the usurping Jewish occupying entity that serves as its forward outpost in the region, that have caused instability and unrest in this region? Know well that none of these will bring security and peace to this region.

The only force that can bring peace and stability to this region is Islam and its state, the Caliphate. When this state cuts America's hand from these blessed lands and uproots the occupying Jewish entity from this region, then—yes, only then—will stability, peace, safety, and security truly return. Then Muslims will attain honor, dignity, and nobility through their Lord and their strong Deen, and will display a truly classy stance against colonial disbelievers and oppressors, by Allah's permission.
